

MAN HUNT SPRAY DOGS AT NIGHT

Vigorous Campaign to Be Waged
Against Roving Bands of Unlicensed Curs.

Reports made by the poundmaster show 131 unlicensed dogs impounded last week, and a total of 118 put out of the way. Notwithstanding the continued activity of the department, and the fact that a larger number of dogs have been destroyed this summer than ever before, certain parts of the city continue to be infested with roving bands of unlicensed curs, some of them a dangerous appearance.

A Committee on Street Cleaning, under whose supervision the pound is operated, will take up shortly the question of running the dog-catchers' wagon at night, or of having at night and a day shift. Some of the roving bands have become smart enough to hide away in vacant lots on the day time, and only run the streets at night. Passing across the Capitol Square a few nights ago a party of Councilmen met six or eight unlicensed dogs hunting together.

Two nights ago seven unlicensed dogs were caught at Sixth and Main Streets shortly after 1 o'clock.

Officials of the Street Cleaning Department and employees of the dog-catchers' wagon are disposed to demand an investigation of the charges brought by Mrs. C. K. Lester, of Church Hill, of rough treatment on the part of the employees. At the request of the superintendent, a subcommittee was appointed to hear the charges, but Mrs. Lester's lawyers have not filed any formal complaint. Superintendent Cohn said yesterday that so far as his own inquiries have developed, the dog-catchers have been misrepresented.

Mr. Cohn said he hoped the case would be given a public hearing.

READY TO BEGIN WORK

Chairman Elyson Preparing for Vigorous Democratic Campaign.

Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Elyson returned to the city yesterday from the Virginia Hot Springs, where he went to visit Mrs. Elyson, who is still suffering from the effects of a severe fall. He says he found her condition very much improved, and that she will be able to return here in a short while. Mr. Elyson has taken no definite action with reference to the opening of Democratic State headquarters, but he is expected to return here in a short while.

The State committee will be called to meet here early in September, and shortly thereafter formal headquarters will be opened. Secretary Brennan was busy yesterday making up a list of the various circuit courts which will meet between now and the day of election, so as to have them available for the purpose of making suggestions for speakers. The last Democratic congressional primary in the State will take place to-day, and then the party ticket will be complete. This fight is in the Norfolk district, the aspirants being Congressman H. L. Maynard, Colonel George C. Cabell and Mr. J. Peter Holland. The race promises to be close between Maynard and Cabell.

FELL FROM CAR

David Shelly, Young White Man, Weeps As His Hurler Is South.

While attempting to alight from car No. 10, at the Albemarle street car stop, David Shelly, of No. 1915 Pleasant street, fell last night and badly injured his left leg. The accident occurred at Seventh and Franklin Streets, and the young man was immediately conveyed to the First Police Station.

Dr. William H. Parker, of Dr. Eggleston, of the city ambulance corps, responded to the summons, and the young man was taken to the hospital. He was in much suffering, though the physicians did not seem to think his condition was all serious. He began weeping when they placed their hands soothingly on his hurt. He finally consented to go to a hospital.

DELICIOUS The Choicest Flavor ECONOMY

Saves Money
IS
Potentate Compress Tea

The choicest leaves of choicest tea. All tea contains stems and useless portions which make weight, but gives nothing in return. We only use the choicest leaves. On a potent tea our loss is not great as compared with our loss on a very choice tea that would cost us more. We use no dust or broken tea. By our process the tea is neither moistened nor adulterated. We must have the perfect whole leaves to get the necessary constituents for making Potentate Compress Tea. Our method of compression makes it more convenient for you, saves you waste and improves the tea by hermetically sealing all the choicest qualities until released by being brewed.

No matter what tea you now use, Potentate Compress Tea is the only tea that you can afford to use.

BOND ISSUE IS EXHAUSTED NOW

Annexed Territory Will Shortly
Become Part of Several City Wards.

Chairman Mills, of the Committee on Appointment of the Funds in the Annexed Territory, stated to that committee last night that whatever the action of the Council in regard to the new rules, it would be necessary under the annexation act to continue a joint committee on the appointment of the funds in the annexed territory until the whole of the bond issue had been expended. Reports showed that of the $412,000 in the bond issue for the annexed territory all but about $600 has been apportioned in extending lines of gas and water mains, and in the opening and grading of streets in the new sections of the city. Much of this amount was used for sewer work, which the bids have fallen below the first estimate of cost, and the committee will eventually have returned several thousand dollars from this source to be reappropriated.

When all of the money made available by the bond issue has been expended, which will be the case, the committee will expire, unless the incoming Council should put further funds at its disposal. At the meeting last night a number of petitions for extension of gas and water mains were tabled for lack of funds, which will be the case. All available propositions will be reintroduced at the first meeting of the new Council, and the committee will be the committee on the extension of gas and water mains. Mr. Pollard, Jr., voiced the thanks of the committee to Chairman Mills for his efficient service in the past. He expressed the view that much of the success of the committee has been due to the chairman.

WILL BE GREAT EVENT

Many Novel Attractions Provided for Labor Day Celebration.

Preparations for the Labor Day celebration, which will be held at Lakeside Park Monday, September 7th, are progressing most favorably, and are now rapidly nearing completion. At the meeting of the Labor Day committee of the Central Trades and Labor Council last night, the various subcommittees presented encouraging reports, and by the time the committee meets again next Monday night—everything will be in hand.

While the committee on amusements will not give out the program of the day's event at present, it is known that the class of amusements will be of a high order, and the kind to attract a crowd. The three candidates for the governor, former Congressman H. St. George Tucker, Hon. Henry C. Stuart and Judge William Hodges Mann, will speak, and it is thought that Mayor-elect D. C. Richardson will accept the invitation, which has been extended to him, to deliver the address at the city hall to-day, and will probably give his answer at once.

Most of the unions in the city will be represented by members, who will act as an escort to the speakers, who will proceed in carriages from the City Hall to the park. The following are the reception committee, and the representatives of the various unions, in the order of seniority of their organizations.

JAMES POPE AGREES DIES AT DANVILLE

Well Known Capitalist, Pioneer
Warehouseman, Goes to His Reward.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., August 24.—James Pope, a well-known capitalist, and member of the Board of Aldermen of Danville, died at 12:30 o'clock this morning at the General Hospital after a lingering illness of several months.

Mr. Pope was in the fifty-third year of his age and had been in declining health for the past six months. He twice went to Patrick Springs in hope of effecting a cure. The stroke which he was taken in the hospital, since which time his condition was known to be critical.

For over thirty-five years, Mr. Pope has been one of the most influential and progressive citizens of Danville, and contributed as much as any other citizen to its uplift and commercial advancement.

He was born in King and Queen counties, being the late Edward S. Pope, for many years a widely known farmer and merchant.

When a boy he moved to Danville, where he made his home up to the time of his death. He was one of the pioneers in the warehouse industry in this city, and was probably the best known. With his brother, the late Mr. E. P. Pope, he founded here, in 1870, the late E. P. Pope & Co., which to-day is the largest plant of its kind in the South. For the past four years he was president of the Danville Co-operative Warehouse Company, which was organized to a great extent through his efforts.

Mr. Pope was also closely identified with many other business ventures and manufactures of the city, and was one of the largest real estate holders here. He was at the time of his death the president of the Danville Real Estate and Insurance Company, and a member of the Danville Co-operative Warehouse Company, which was organized to a great extent through his efforts.

Mr. Pope was also a member of the Danville Co-operative Warehouse Company, which was organized to a great extent through his efforts. He was also a member of the Danville Co-operative Warehouse Company, which was organized to a great extent through his efforts.
